THE ALLIANCE

FORT WAYNE-ALLEN COUNTY
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ALLIANCE

BizViz is an economic development outreach program designed to help businesses in Fort Wayne-Allen County achieve their growth goals.

At the Alliance, we recognize that our existing businesses are the backbone of our community and the local economy. Local businesses are responsible for roughly 80% of new jobs and investment in Fort Wayne-Allen County. This is why we work to inform decision makers at companies of all the options available to improve their business. Whether you're looking to expand or having trouble with growth, we will help you to identify what resources are available through government programs and incentives.

Who is the Alliance?

The Alliance is short for the Fort Wayne-Allen County Economic Development Alliance. The Alliance is the local economic development organization for Allen County, Indiana. Our goal is to further the base employment of Allen County through business retention, expansion and attraction projects. We realize that working with government entities can be a daunting and time consuming task – since our team knows the ropes and works daily with these agencies, we'll make this a straightforward process for you and your business.

How will we assist you with business services?

The Alliance is your convenient, single point of contact for assistance with:

- obtaining tax incentives, grants and workforce training funds
- acting as a liaison with local, regional, and state government agencies
- site location and building selection processes
- workforce and training needs
- development and construction permitting processes

When should you contact us? When you're planning to...

- expand your operations and/or facility
- purchase equipment
- hire new employees
- train your employees

Or call us if you're:

- having issues with zoning or permitting processes or other regulatory issues
- looking for resources, ideas, partnerships, and collaborations
- looking for local suppliers for your business
- thinking of moving outside of Allen County
